

Get To Know Another Couple!

Use these questions to help jumpstart some conversation with another couple! Who know... you just might be making some new friends!

1. Talk about how you're feeling about the past few days in the form of a weather report (i.e. "partly sunny" or "thunderstorms," etc).
2. What is one thing you'd like to change about the typical way you spend your day?
3. Who are your favorite music groups or singers these days?
4. Share about your first date with your spouse.
5. What one TV show would you like to see renewed for another season?
6. Which fictional book would you most enjoy being a character in?
7. What's the most important thing that happened to you this week? (You can use this question many times.)
8. If you had ten thousand dollars given to you to spend on home improvement, what would you do?
9. Talk about the last road trip you took together... what were the highlights and the hurdles?
10. What movies look good to you these days?
11. Share about a favorite food your household enjoys eating.
12. What is one thing you miss about childhood?
13. Who is another couple you admire in some way?
14. Where does your family typically shop for groceries? What do you like about that store?
15. Locally speaking, which restaurant makes a dessert that you find yourself craving?

